

CHAPTER 34.

An Act to increase the rateable deductions to be made from the pay of the police and to authorise, in certain circumstances, the return of rateable deductions in the case of members of police forces retired or dismissed after the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and nineteen. [22nd November 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Increase of rateable deductions.
11 & 12
Geo. 5. c. 31.

1. The rateable deductions to be made from the pay of every member of a police force under section nineteen of the Police Pensions Act, 1921 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall be at the rate of five per cent. of his pay, and that section shall have effect accordingly.

Power to return
rateable
deductions
in certain circumstances.

2.—(1) Where, after the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and nineteen, and before the commencement of the principal Act, a member of a police force left the force without a pension or gratuity and in circumstances which did not enable him to reckon his service in the force for the purpose of pension, the police authority may, if they think fit,—

- (a) if he so left the force on retiring (whether voluntarily or as an alternative to dismissal), either pay to him the whole or any part of any rateable deductions which had been made from his pay or apply the same in such manner as they think fit for the benefit of his wife or widow or children, if any; or
- (b) if he so left the force on being dismissed, apply the whole or any part of such rateable deductions as aforesaid in such manner as they think fit for the benefit of his wife or widow or children, if any.

(2) This section shall not apply to Scotland.

3. This Act may be cited as the Police Pensions Act, 1926, and shall be construed as one with the principal Act, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Police Pensions Acts, 1921 and 1926.

CHAPTER 35.

An Act to amend section eleven of the Industrial Assurance Act, 1923, with respect to the exemption from that Act of juvenile societies.

[15th December 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. For section eleven of the Industrial Assurance Act, 1923, the following section shall be substituted:

Exemption of certain juvenile societies.
13 & 14
Geo. 5. c. 8.

“(1) This Act shall not apply to a juvenile society within the meaning of this section notwithstanding that premiums of the juvenile members of the society are received by means of collectors, if and so long as no premiums of any members of the society who are not juvenile members are so received.

“(2) For the purposes of this section the expression ‘juvenile society’ means a registered friendly society or branch which consists wholly or in part of juvenile members, and which is a branch of, or is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be connected with, a friendly society registered before the seventh day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, and the expression ‘juvenile member’ means a member under the age of eighteen years.”

2. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Assurance (Juvenile Societies) Act, 1926, and shall be construed as one with the Industrial Assurance Act, 1923, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Industrial Assurance Acts, 1923 and 1926.
