3. Any decree granted under the Act of the Indian Legislature known as the Indian Divorce Act, 1869, and confirmed or made absolute under the provisions of that Act, for the dissolution of a marriage the parties to which were at the time of the commencement of the proceedings domiciled in England or in Scotland, and any order made by the court in relation to any such decree shall, if the proceedings were commenced before the passing of this Act, be as valid and be deemed always to have been as valid in all respects as though the parties to the marriage had been domiciled in India.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Indian and Colonial Divorce Jurisdiction Act, 1926.

CHAPTER 41.

An Act to amend the Officers of Royal Naval Reserve Act, 1863. [15th December 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Amendment of s. 3 of the principal Act.
26 & 27
Vict. c. 69.

1. The provisions of the Officers of Royal Naval Reserve Act, 1863 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), which relate to the pensions and allowances payable to officers to whom that Act applies on disablement and to the dependent relatives of such officers (that is to say, in section three thereof the words from “and if any such person is disabled” to the end of the section), are hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following provision shall have effect :—

“Where any such officer sustains any disability of mind or body which is attributable to the conditions of naval service, he may be granted an allowance or pension in respect thereof at such rate and subject to such conditions as the Admiralty with the consent of His Majesty in Council may appoint, and where he is killed or dies as the result of any wound, accident, injury or disease attributable to the conditions of naval service, his widow, children or other dependent relatives may be granted such pension, allowances or gratuity as the Admiralty with the like consent may appoint.”

2. The consent of His Majesty in Council shall not be necessary to rules, orders and regulations established by the Admiralty under section two of the principal Act with reference to the enrolment of persons as officers of reserve to the Royal Navy, and accordingly the words “with the consent of Her Majesty in Council” in the said section are hereby repealed. Amendment of s. 2 of the principal Act.

3. This Act may be cited as the Naval Reserve (Officers) Act, 1926, and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as the Naval Reserve (Officers) Acts, 1863 and 1926. Short title and citation.
