

CHAPTER 5.

An Act to amend section sixteen of the Allotments (Scotland) Act, 1922. [29th April 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section sixteen of the Allotments (Scotland) Act, 1922, any local authority may, if they deem it expedient, take proceedings under the provisions of the Allotments Acts relating to allotments if, in the opinion of the local authority, the expenses referred to in the said section may reasonably be expected, after the proceedings are taken, to exceed the receipts of the local authority under these provisions by no greater amount than would be produced by a rate of one penny in the pound.

Amendment of 12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 52, s. 16.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Allotments (Scotland) Act, 1926; and the Allotments (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1922, and this Act may be cited as the Allotments (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1926, and shall be construed together as one Act.

Short title, construction and extent.

(2) This Act shall extend to Scotland only.

CHAPTER 6.

An Act to provide, during Twelve Months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army and Air Force. [29th April 1926.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law:

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament that a body of land forces
