

Provided that any regulations made and any certificates given under the powers conferred by that Act shall continue in force and shall have effect as though made or given under the Weights and Measures Acts, 1878 to 1904, as amended by this Act.

Short title, citation and extent.

5.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Weights and Measures (Amendment) Act, 1926, and shall be construed as one with the Weights and Measures Acts, 1878 to 1904, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Weights and Measures Acts, 1878 to 1926.

(2) This Act shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

CHAPTER 9.

An Act to make provision for reducing in respect of certain services the charges on public funds and for increasing, by means of the payment into the Exchequer of certain sums and otherwise, the funds available for meeting such charges, and to amend accordingly the law relating to national health insurance, unemployment insurance, the registration of electors and the holding of elections, education, bankruptcy and companies winding-up fees and certain other fees, and postmarks, and for purposes related or incidental to the matters aforesaid.

[16th June 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE. •

Amendment
as to proportion of contributions payable

1.—(1) Section four of the National Health Insurance Act, 1924 (in this Part of this Act referred to as "the principal Act"), (which provides for contributions by insured persons, employers and the Treasury), shall be deemed as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, to have had effect as if for the words from "as to seven-ninths thereof" to the end of the section there were substituted the words "in the case of men as to six-sevenths thereof, and in the case of women as to four-fifths thereof, from contributions made by or in respect of the contributors by themselves or their employers and as to the balance thereof from moneys provided by Parliament," and for the purpose of determining the amount to be derived from moneys provided by Parliament in respect of the cost of additional benefits administered by a society, other than additional benefits consisting of increases of sickness, disablement or maternity benefit, the amount of that cost shall be apportioned between men and women in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister of Health (in this Part of this Act referred to as "the Minister") with the consent of the Treasury.

Geo. 5. c. 38.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the amount of the sums which are to be credited to societies out of moneys provided by Parliament under the proviso to subsection (3) of section one of the National Health Insurance Act, 1922, (which makes provision as to the cost of medical benefit and administration expenses).

12 & 13
Geo. 5. c. 38.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section eighty-three of the principal Act there may, out of the funds out of which benefits are payable under the principal Act, be applied for the purpose of meeting the cost of medical benefit, the administration expenses of insurance committees and any expenses incurred by the Minister in connection with the administration of benefits a sum at such yearly rate as may be prescribed, but not exceeding thirteen shillings per year in respect of each of the total number (calculated in the prescribed manner) of the persons who are entitled to medical benefit as being or having been members of an approved society, and there shall be paid for each year to insurance committees on account of the cost of medical benefit and their administration expenses, and to the Minister on account of expenses incurred by him in respect of the administration of benefits, sums not exceeding in the aggregate the sum applicable as aforesaid, and not exceeding as respects the administration expenses of insurance committees the sum of sixpence, and as

Amendment of s. 83 of principal Act.

respects the expenses of the Minister the sum of three-pence, in respect of each of the total number aforesaid :

Provided that, if the aggregate sum paid for any year to insurance committees and the Minister under this section in respect of each of the total number aforesaid is less than the sum applicable as aforesaid in respect of each of the said total number, the balance shall be carried forward and be treated as being applicable as aforesaid in any subsequent year.

(2) For the purpose of meeting any additional expenditure which may be incurred in the provision of medical benefit in Wales by reason of sparsity of population or difficulty of means of communication, provision may be made by regulations for the payment out of the National Health Insurance Fund to the Welsh National Health Insurance Fund of such sum as may be prescribed.

(3) This section in its application to Scotland shall have effect subject to the following modifications—

- (a) in addition to the payments to be made under subsection (1) of this section out of the sum applicable as provided by that subsection, there may be paid thereout any expenses of the Scottish Board of Health in connection with the provision of a medical service for insured persons in such districts of Scotland (other than the highlands and islands within the meaning of the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Grant Act, 1913) as may be determined by the Board to be necessitous, and references in the said subsection (1) as applied to Scotland to expenses incurred by the Board shall be construed as including the expenses aforesaid; and
- (b) the maximum sums as respects the administration expenses of insurance committees and the expenses of the Board shall be such sums as may respectively be prescribed.

(4) This section shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

c. 26.

Application of Reserve Suspense

3.—(1) If on the valuation of an approved society or of a branch of an approved society it appears to the valuer that a deficiency will be disclosed, he shall forthwith report the case to the Government Actuary, and on receiving any such report the Government Actuary shall proceed to estimate the amount by which the financial position of the society or branch has been made worse in consequence of the provisions of this Part of this Act and shall, as soon as he has estimated that amount, issue a certificate specifying what that amount is, or, if that amount is greater than the amount of the apprehended deficiency, what the amount of that deficiency is, and shall transmit the certificate to the Minister.

Fund and Central Fund towards making good deficiencies due to provisions of this Part of this Act.

(2) The Minister on receiving a certificate under this section may, if he thinks proper so to do having regard to all the circumstances of the case, cause a sum equal to the amount specified in the certificate to be credited to the society or branch out of any balance standing to the credit of the Reserve Suspense Fund, after due provision has been made for the payment of any sum charged on that Fund under or by virtue of any enactment, and if there is no such balance standing to the credit of that Fund or the balance is insufficient for the purpose of providing the whole amount specified in the certificate, the Minister may transmit the certificate with a statement as to the amount which cannot be provided out of the said Fund, to the Joint Committee, and that Committee shall thereupon cause that amount to be credited to the society out of the Central Fund.

(3) The Minister may, instead of proceeding as aforesaid, transmit to the Joint Committee any certificate received by him under this section, and the Committee, if satisfied that the apprehended deficiency is attributable in whole or in part to the provisions of this Part of this Act, shall award to the society or branch such relief as might have been granted under the preceding subsection, or such part of that relief as the Joint Committee, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, think proper, and the Minister and Committee shall thereupon take the necessary steps for causing the proper amount to be credited to the society or branch.

(4) Subsection (2) of section seventy-seven of the principal Act (which provides for the investigation by an independent body of claims for relief out of the Central Fund), shall, subject to the necessary modifications, apply for the purpose of determining whether, and to what extent, relief ought to be granted under this section.

(5) Any amount to be credited under this section to a society or branch of a society shall be treated as having formed part of the assets of the society or branch at the date of the valuation.

Amendment
of s. 68 of principal Act.

4. Such part of the sums which under subsection (2) of section sixty-eight of the principal Act are to be carried to the Central Fund as may be required for the purposes specified in this subsection, instead of being carried to that Fund, shall be applied for those purposes as follows :—

(a) There shall, out of the said sums, in the first place, be credited to approved societies in accordance with a scheme to be made by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee with the approval of the Treasury, such part of those sums as the Committee may direct, and any sums so credited shall be applied by the society, in such manner as the scheme may provide, for the purpose of preventing such members of the society as are in arrears from being or continuing to be suspended from benefit :

(b) The said sums shall, in the second place, be applied in defraying such proportion as is not derived from moneys provided by Parliament of any liability outstanding on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-six (after exhausting all sums applicable thereto under section one of the National Health Insurance (Cost of Medical Benefit) Act, 1924), in respect of the cost of drugs, medicines and appliances supplied as part of medical benefit :

(c) In the third place, the said sums shall be applied from time to time in defraying the amount as estimated by the Treasury of such part of the cost incurred by Government Departments in connection with the provision of insurance stamps and cards and the sale of insurance stamps as may be attributable to national health insurance.

14 & 15
Geo. 5. c. 10.

5.—(1) There shall, in accordance with directions of the Treasury, be transferred to the Exchequer from the Navy, Army and Air Force Insurance Fund constituted under the principal Act the sum of one million one hundred thousand pounds.

Transfer from Navy, Army and Air Force
Insurance Fund to Exchequer.

(2) Section fifty-nine of the principal Act shall have effect as though the words "other than additional benefits" in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) thereof were omitted therefrom, and, subject to the approval of the Treasury, provision may be made by regulations for granting out of the Fund to men of the forces to whom the said paragraph (e) applies such additional benefits as may from time to time be prescribed having regard to the liabilities and assets of the Fund, as though the Fund were an approved society and the discharged men had been members of the society since the date of their entry or enlistment.

(3) Provision may be made by regulations for entitling men of the forces who before the commencement of this Act joined or thereafter join approved societies either during service or within the prescribed period after discharge to participate (subject to such conditions as may be prescribed), in additional benefits provided by those societies, and for prescribing special transfer values applicable to such men.

6.—(1) The amendments specified in the second column of the First Schedule to this Act, which are consequential on other provisions contained in this Part of this Act, shall be made in the provisions of the principal Act and the other enactments relating to national health insurance which are set out in the first column of that Schedule.

Consequential amendments of enactments relating to national health insurance, and variation of reserve values.

(2) The amendments specified in Part I. of the said First Schedule shall be deemed to have had effect as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, and the amendments specified in Part II. of the said Schedule shall have effect as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

(3) Provision may be made by regulations for such variation of reserve values as appears necessary in consequence of the provisions of this Part of this Act.

Short title,
construction and application
of Part I.

7.—(1) This Part of this Act may be cited as the National Health Insurance Act, 1926, and shall be construed as one with the principal Act, and that Act and this Part of this Act may be cited together as the National Health Insurance Acts, 1924 and 1926.

(2) This Part of this Act shall not, except as hereinafter provided, apply to Northern Ireland:

Provided that, if provision substantially corresponding to the provision contained in this Part of this Act for making good out of the Reserve Suspense Fund deficiencies due to the provisions of this Part of this Act is made by the Parliament of Northern Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council apply for the purpose of deficiencies in connection with approved societies or branches of approved societies in Northern Ireland so much of section three of this Act as relates to the crediting of amounts out of the Central Fund.

PART II.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

Amendment
of s. 4 of Unemployment
Insurance
Act, 1925,
15 & 16
Geo. 5. c. 69.

8.—(1) As from and after the fifth day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, until the expiration of the extended period as defined in section four of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925, the contribution payable under the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1925, out of moneys provided by Parliament shall be a contribution of such an amount as may be determined by the Treasury to be approximately equivalent, having regard to the estimated proportions in which contributions are payable in respect of men, women, boys and girls, to the sum which would be produced by weekly contributions paid in respect of insured persons and exempt persons at the respective rates set out in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(2) Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of the said section four (except in so far as it relates to the meaning of the expression "the 1925 debt") is hereby repealed as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-six.

(3) This Part of this Act shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

(4) This Part of this Act and the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1925, may be cited together as the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1926.

PART III.

REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE.

9.—(1) One register only of electors shall be made in each year and the qualifying period shall be reduced from six months to three months.

Substitution of one register a year for two and reduction of qualifying period.

(2) For the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing provision, the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1922, shall have effect subject to the following modifications, that is to say :—

7 & 8 Geo. 5.
c. 64.
11 & 12
Geo. 5. c. 34.
12 & 13
Geo. 5. c. 12.

(a) All provisions applicable to the autumn register shall apply as respects the yearly register, except that the yearly register shall remain in force until the fifteenth day of October in the next following year, and the provisions as to the preparation of two registers in each year and as to the spring register shall cease to have effect;

(b) The provisions mentioned in the first column of the Third Schedule to this Act shall be amended in the manner shown in the second column of the said Schedule ; and to such other modifications as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

(3) It shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council to make such adaptations in the provisions of any Act (including any local Act or any Act to confirm a Provisional Order) as may seem to Him necessary to make those provisions conform with the provisions of this Part of this Act.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the preparation of the autumn register of nineteen hundred and twenty-six, and that register shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

10. Paragraph (14) of section forty-three of the Representation of the People Act, 1918 (which provides that the poll at any general or bye-election for the constituency of Orkney and Zetland shall remain open for two consecutive days), is hereby repealed.

Polls in Orkney and Zetland.

c. 64.

Short title,
construction, and extent of Part III.

11.—(1) This Part of this Act may be cited as the Representation of the People (Economy Provisions) Act, 1926, and shall be construed as one with the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1922, and those Acts and this Part of this Act may be cited together as the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1926.

(2) This Part of this Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

PART IV.

EDUCATION.

Operation of s. 118 of Education
Act, 1921.
11 & 12
Geo. 5. c. 51.

12.—(1) For the purpose of removing doubts it is hereby declared that the Board of Education shall not, for the purpose of subsection (2) of section one hundred and eighteen of the Education Act, 1921, be bound to recognise as expenditure in aid of which parliamentary grants should be made to a local education authority any expenditure which in the opinion of the Board is excessive having regard to the circumstances of the area of the authority and the general standard of expenditure on corresponding services in other areas, or which in the opinion of the Board unreasonably exceeds any estimate of expenditure made by the authority.

(2) The grants payable to such local education authorities for higher education as do not provide training colleges may be reduced in any year, in such manner as may be provided by regulations made by the Board of Education, by a sum not exceeding seventy thousand pounds in the aggregate, notwithstanding that the total sums payable out of moneys provided by Parliament and out of the Local Taxation Account to those authorities, or any of them, in any year in aid of higher education would thereby be reduced to less than one-half of the net expenditure thereon of the authorities recognised by the Board for the purposes of subsection (2) of the said section one hundred and eighteen.

The expression "training colleges" in this subsection does not include training colleges in which only domestic subjects are taught.

Any regulations made by the Board of Education under this subsection shall be laid before Parliament as soon as may be after they are made.

. PART V.

• BANKRUPTCY AND COMPANIES WINDING-UP FEES.

13.—(1) The dividends on investments under section ninety of the Bankruptcy Act, 1914 (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the bankruptcy investments dividends”) and the fees and percentages charged for or in respect of proceedings under that Act (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the bankruptcy fees”), and the dividends on investments under section two hundred and thirty of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908 (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the companies investments dividends”) and the fees in respect of proceedings under that Act in relation to the winding-up of companies in England (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the companies winding-up fees”) shall be paid into an account to be called “The Bankruptcy and Companies Winding-up (Fees) Account.”

Establishment of bankruptcy and companies winding-up fees, account and application thereof.
4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 59.
8 Edw. 7. c. 69.

(2) All sums which at the date of the commencement of this Part of this Act are standing to the credit of any of the following accounts, namely, the accounts to which there have respectively been paid the bankruptcy investments dividends, the bankruptcy fees, the companies investments dividends and the companies winding-up fees, shall be forthwith transferred to the Bankruptcy and Companies Winding-up (Fees) Account.

(3) The Treasury may in each financial year, out of the moneys standing to the credit of the Bankruptcy and Companies Winding-up (Fees) Account—

- (a) in aid of the moneys voted by Parliament for the salaries and expenses of the Board of Trade, issue to the Board any sums which may be necessary to meet the charges estimated by the Board in respect of salaries and expenses either under the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, or under the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, in relation to the winding-up of companies in England; and
- (b) pay into the Exchequer a sum equal to the amount which in the last preceding financial year fell to be defrayed out of any other votes of Parliament in respect of any such salaries and expenses.

(4) An amount equal to the sums transferred under the foregoing provisions of this section to the Bankruptcy and Companies Winding-up (Fees) Account, less the sum of one hundred thousand pounds, shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, be paid out of that Account into the Exchequer in such manner as the Treasury direct, and thereafter the amount standing to the credit of that Account on the thirty-first day of March in any financial year shall, after deducting therefrom an amount equal to one-third of the aggregate amount issued out of the said Account in that year under the provisions of the last preceding subsection, be paid into the Exchequer in such manner as the Treasury direct.

Provision as to fixing of fees.

14. In fixing the scales of the bankruptcy fees and of the companies winding-up fees, regard shall be had to the sum which it is anticipated will on an average be from time to time required to meet the aggregate amount of the charges in respect of salaries and expenses under the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, and under the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, in relation to the winding-up of companies in England.

Annual account of bankruptcy and winding-up proceedings.

15.—(1) The Treasury shall in respect of each financial year cause to be prepared and laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after the end of that year, or, if Parliament is not then sitting, within one month after the next meeting of Parliament, an account in such form and containing such particulars as the Treasury, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor, from time to time direct, showing the receipts and expenditure during that year in respect of proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, and proceedings in relation to the winding-up of companies in England.

(2) The accounts of the Board of Trade under the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, and in relation to the winding-up of companies in England shall be audited in such manner as the Treasury direct, and for the purpose of the account to be laid before Parliament under this section the Board shall make such returns and give such information as the Treasury may direct.

16. The foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act shall have effect as if references therein to bankruptcy fees and the account to which they have been paid, and to salaries, expenses and proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, included references to any fees to be taken under the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1914 (not being fees to be taken in the Supreme Court in respect of matters arising under that Act), and to the account into which any fees taken under that Act have been paid, and to salaries, expenses and proceedings under that Act.

Application of Part V. to fees, &c., under Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1914.
4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 47.

PART VI.

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL.

17. For the purpose of removing doubts it is hereby declared that the marks to be used by the Postmaster-General for the purpose of cancelling stamps used for the payment of the postage chargeable on postal packets may consist of such words or devices as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion think proper, including words or devices constituting advertisements in respect of the use of which as postmarks payment is made by any persons to the Postmaster-General.

Provision as to marks to be used for cancelling postage stamps.

18. The amount of the fees to be charged under the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1923, shall be so fixed, and from time to time be so readjusted, that the aggregate amount produced by those fees as from the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, up to any date shall be approximately equal to one-half of the amount certified from time to time by the Board of Trade to be the aggregate cost as from the first day of April aforesaid up to that date of the administration of the services in respect of which the fees are payable.

Fees under Merchant Shipping Acts.

19.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Economy (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1926.

Short title and repeal.

(2) The enactments set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

CHAPTER 10.

An Act to extend further the duration of the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Act,
1923. [16th June 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1923, mentioned in the Schedule to this Act shall, as amended by the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1924, have effect as if for references therein to nineteen hundred and twenty-six there were substituted references to nineteen hundred and twenty-eight.

Further extension of duration of 13 & 14 Geo. 5. c. 6. 14 & 15 Geo. 5. c. 29.

2. This Act may be cited as the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1926, and the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Acts, 1923 and 1924, and this Act may be cited together as the Local Authorities (Emergency Provisions) Acts, 1923 to 1926.
