

(3.) Where any workman is employed by the same employer mainly in agricultural but partly or occasionally in other work, this Act shall apply also to the employment of the workman in such other work.

The expression "agriculture" includes horticulture, forestry, and the use of land for any purpose of husbandry, inclusive of the keeping or breeding of live stock, poultry, or bees, and the growth of fruit and vegetables.

2. This Act may be cited as the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1900, and shall be read as one with the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1897, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1897 and 1900. Short title.

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and one. Commencement of Act.

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Removal of Paupers from England to Ireland. [30th July 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) A person who has resided continuously for five years in England shall not thereafter be removable to Ireland under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor. Restriction on removal of paupers from England to Ireland.

(2.) In cases where under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor a pauper is removable from England to Ireland, boards of guardians may make and give effect to agreements that the pauper, instead of being removed, shall be maintained by the board of guardians of the poor law union from which he is removable at the expense of the board of guardians of the union to which, if removed, he would be chargeable; and such agreements may be entered into whether application for a warrant of removal has been made or not.

2. This Act may be cited as the Poor Removal Act, 1900. Short title.

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to further amend the Law relating to Veterinary Surgeons. [30th July 1900.]

WHEREAS persons who are the holders of the veterinary certificate of the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland, granted prior to the passing of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881, are permitted to practise the art and science of
