

(3.) Where any workman is employed by the same employer mainly in agricultural but partly or occasionally in other work, this Act shall apply also to the employment of the workman in such other work.

The expression "agriculture" includes horticulture, forestry, and the use of land for any purpose of husbandry, inclusive of the keeping or breeding of live stock, poultry, or bees, and the growth of fruit and vegetables.

2. This Act may be cited as the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1900, and shall be read as one with the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1897, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1897 and 1900. Short title.

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and one. Commencement of Act.

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Removal of Paupers from England to Ireland. [30th July 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) A person who has resided continuously for five years in England shall not thereafter be removable to Ireland under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor. Restriction on removal of paupers from England to Ireland.

(2.) In cases where under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor a pauper is removable from England to Ireland, boards of guardians may make and give effect to agreements that the pauper, instead of being removed, shall be maintained by the board of guardians of the poor law union from which he is removable at the expense of the board of guardians of the union to which, if removed, he would be chargeable; and such agreements may be entered into whether application for a warrant of removal has been made or not.

2. This Act may be cited as the Poor Removal Act, 1900. Short title.

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to further amend the Law relating to Veterinary Surgeons. [30th July 1900.]

WHEREAS persons who are the holders of the veterinary certificate of the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland, granted prior to the passing of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881, are permitted to practise the art and science of veterinary surgery and medicine, but are not amenable to the disciplinary powers conferred on the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons over persons on the Register of Veterinary Surgeons :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Construction and short title.
44 & 45 Vict.
c. 62.

1. This Act shall be supplemental to, and shall be read with, the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881 (herein-after called the principal Act), and may be cited as the Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act, 1900.

Extension or disciplinary powers of Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

2. From and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and one, all persons now holding the veterinary certificate of the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland granted prior to the passing of the principal Act shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons in like manner as members of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, and shall be liable to be deprived by the Council of the said College of the rights of styling themselves members of the veterinary profession, or recovering fees in respect of the practice of the veterinary art, subject to and under the conditions and with the restrictions specified in section six of the principal Act.

Penalties.

3. Any person who may be deprived of such rights under the provisions of section two of this Act shall be subject to the penalties mentioned in section seventeen of the principal Act if he takes or uses the title of veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner, or any name, title, addition, or description, stating that he is a veterinary surgeon, or a practitioner of veterinary surgery or of any branch thereof, or is specially qualified to practise the same, and he shall not be entitled to recover in any court any fee or charge for performing any veterinary operation, or for giving any veterinary attendance or advice, or for acting in any manner as a veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner, or for practising in any case veterinary surgery or any branch thereof, anything in such section to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 25.

An Act to amend the Charitable Loan Societies (Ireland) Act, 1843. [30th July 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Cases in which charitable loans are not to be invalid

1. Any promissory note current or unpaid on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and purporting to have been made, in pursuance of the provisions of the Charitable
