CHAPTER 38.

An Act to extend the Elementary School Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1898, to Teachers serving in the Isle of Man, and to service as a Teacher in that Island. [6th August 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Extension of 61 & 62 Vict.
c. 57. to service as a teacher in the Isle of Man.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Elementary School Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1898 (in this Act referred to as the principal Act) shall apply to teachers serving in the Isle of Man and to service as a teacher in that Island, as it applies to teachers serving in England or Scotland and to service as a teacher in England or Scotland.

Payment by Island of whole or part of allowances.

2. Recorded service in the Isle of Man shall not be reckoned as such service for the purpose of annual superannuation allowances or disablement allowances under the principal Act, unless provision is made and maintained to the satisfaction of the Treasury by the legislature of the Island—

- (i) for the grant and payment of any such allowances in the case of a teacher the whole of whose recorded service has been service in the Island, by the Government of the Island out of Island Funds instead of by the Treasury; and
- (ii) in the case of the grant of any such allowance to a teacher whose recorded service has been partly service in the Island and partly service elsewhere, for the repayment to the Treasury out of Island Funds of a part of that allowance proportionate or assignable to the period of the recorded service in the Island.

Option of existing teachers to accept Act.

3. Section five of the principal Act (which relates to the application of the Act to existing teachers) shall as respects any such teacher who has been serving in the Isle of Man at any time after the commencement of the principal Act, and has not already accepted that Act, be read as if the period of twelve months after the commencement of this Act were substituted for the period of one year after the commencement of the principal Act as the maximum time to be prescribed within which the option to accept the principal Act may be exercised.

Supplemental modifications.

4.—(1.) The power to grant an annual superannuation allowance or a disablement allowance under sections one and two of the principal Act, shall be exercised in the case of a teacher, the whole of whose recorded service has been service in the Isle of Man, by or on behalf of the Government of the Island instead of by the Treasury, and any allowance granted under the power so exercised shall not be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of section one of the principal Act, and sections two, seven, and eight of that Act shall accordingly be construed as if as respects the superannuation and disablement allowances of such teachers “the Government of the Isle of Man” were substituted for “the Treasury,” and “Island Funds” for “moneys provided by Parliament.”

(2.) Section nine of the principal Act shall apply in the Isle of Man as if the words “or in the Isle of Man” were added at the end of the section.

(3.) Subsection three of section five of the principal Act shall be construed as if the words “or the legislature or Government of the Isle of Man” were added after the word “Parliament.”

(4.) Section eleven of the principal Act shall be construed as if the words "or as respects the Isle of Man the corresponding law in force in that Island" were added at the end of the definition of "Education Code."

(5.) Section ten of the principal Act shall apply in the Isle of Man as if the words "be guilty of a misdemeanour and" were inserted after the word "shall" in that section, and as if the expression "indictment" included information, and the expression "summary conviction" meant conviction by a high bailiff or two justices of the peace.

5. This Act may be cited as the Elementary School Teachers Short title.
Superannuation (Isle of Man) Act, 1900.
