CHAPTER 48.

An Act to amend the Companies Acts.

[8th August 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Incorporation and Objects.

Conclusiveness of certificate of incorporation

1.—(1.) A certificate of incorporation given by the registrar in respect of any association shall be conclusive evidence that all the requisitions of the Companies Acts in respect of registration and of matters precedent and incidental thereto have been complied with, and that the association is a company authorised to be registered and duly registered under the Companies Acts.

(2.) A statutory declaration by a solicitor of the High Court engaged in the formation of the company or by a person named in the articles of association as a director or secretary of the company of compliance with all or any of the said requisitions shall be produced to the registrar, and the registrar may accept this declaration as sufficient evidence of such compliance.

(3.) The incorporation of a company shall take effect from the date of incorporation mentioned in the certificate of incorporation.

(4.) This section applies to all certificates of incorporation, whether given before or after the passing of this Act.

Appointment and Qualification of Director.

Restrictions on appointment or advertisement of director.

2.—(1.) A person shall not be capable of being appointed director of a company by the articles of association, and shall not be named as a director or proposed director of a company in any prospectus issued by or on behalf of the company, unless, before the registration of the articles or the publication of the prospectus, as the case may be, he has by himself or by his agent authorised in writing—

(i) signed and filed with the registrar a consent in writing to act as such director; and
