

CHAPTER 8.

An Act to remove Electoral Disabilities which may arise in the case of Members of the Reserve, Militia, and Yeomanry Forces, and in the case of Volunteers, by reason of absence on the Military Service of the Crown.
[25th May 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) A person shall not be disqualified for being registered for voting, either as a parliamentary or as a local government elector, in respect of a qualification for which any residence or inhabitancy is required, by reason only that during the whole or any part of the qualifying period he has as a member of the Reserve, Militia, Yeomanry, or Volunteer Forces, or otherwise as a volunteer, been absent on actual military service on behalf of the Crown, whether beyond the seas or not.

Absence of person in performance of military duties not to disqualify as elector.

(2.) A person so absent shall not be disqualified by reason of his wife or children having received poor relief during such absence.

(3.) The claim to be registered as a lodger may be made and signed, in the case of a person so absent, by any other person on his behalf, and the form of the claim and declaration may in those cases be modified accordingly.

(4.) In this Act the expression "a volunteer" shall include any person who is enlisted for temporary service only in connection with any war as a member of the regular forces.

2. This Act may be cited as the Electoral Disabilities (Military Service) Removal Act, 1900.

3. This Act shall apply only to absence during the continuance of the present war in South Africa.

CHAPTER 9.

An Act to authorise the grant out of Police Funds of certain Allowances and Gratuities in respect of Police Reservists who are called out on Permanent Service.

[25th May 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Family allowances for police reservists on active service.

- 1.—(1.) Where a constable of a police force within the meaning of this Act belongs to the Army Reserve, and has been called out for permanent service in pursuance of the Royal Proclamation of the seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant out of the police fund, to or for the benefit of his wife and children, or any of them, or in the case of an unmarried man to or for the benefit of any person whom he is legally liable to maintain and towards whose support he has regularly contributed, an allowance of such amount and subject to such conditions and restrictions as they think equitable.

Provided as follows:—

- (a.) Any such allowance shall be granted for a limited period not exceeding one year, and may be renewed for a further period, but shall not be continued after the police authority have received notice that the man has ceased to be employed on army service.
 - (b.) The aggregate amount of the weekly allowance granted in respect of a married man, together with the weekly amount of any separation or other allowance required to be paid out of military funds in pursuance of any Royal Warrant, and the weekly amount of any compulsory deductions from the man's pay as a soldier, shall not exceed the total weekly amount which he was receiving from police funds when called out.
 - (c.) The allowance granted in respect of an unmarried man shall not exceed in the aggregate eight shillings a week.
- (2.) If the man dies or is disabled whilst employed on army service, the police authority shall have the same powers with respect to the grant of gratuities as if he had been in the police force at the time of his death or disablement.
- (3.) If he returns to the police force he shall return to a rank not less than the rank which he held at the time when he was called out, and at a rate of pay not less than the rate which he received before that date.
- (4.) Any allowance or gratuity granted before the passing of this Act in respect of a constable called out on permanent service is hereby confirmed, and any such allowance may be continued until the expiration of two months from the passing of this Act, but not longer, unless it is in conformity with the requirements of this Act.
- (5.) Where a county is divided into districts for the purposes of the County Police Act, 1840, any allowances granted in accordance with this Act shall be deemed to be general expenditure within the meaning of that Act.
- (6.) The expressions "police force" "police authority" and "police fund" have the same meanings in this Act as in the Police Act, 1890.

c. 45.

Application to Scotland.

2. This Act shall apply to Scotland with the substitution of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1890, for the Police Act, 1890, and of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1857, for the County Police Act, 1840.
