

(8) Every person who, in respect of any tea sold by him as principal or agent, gives to the purchaser a false warranty in writing, shall be liable on summary conviction, for a first offence, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, for a second offence to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, and for any subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that when he gave the warranty he had reason to believe that the statements or descriptions contained therein were true.

CHAPTER 30.

An Act to amend section four of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1922, so far as relates to the third special period mentioned in that Act.

[20th July 1922.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Amendments of s. 4 of 12 & 13
Geo. 5. c. 7.

1.—(1) The periods for which the Minister of Labour may, under section four of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1922, authorise a person to receive benefit during the third special period shall be periods not exceeding in the aggregate twenty-two weeks instead of periods not exceeding in the aggregate fifteen weeks, and the prohibition imposed by subsection (5) of the said section four, on the receipt in the third special period of benefit for more than fifteen weeks in the aggregate, shall not apply in the case of benefit authorised by the Minister under that section as amended by this subsection.

(2) The period during which a person who has at any time received benefit under the said section four in the third special period for periods amounting in the aggregate to five weeks is under subsection (2) of that section not to be qualified for the receipt of benefit, shall be reduced from five weeks to one week :

Provided that, where by virtue of the said subsection any person is at the commencement of this Act disqualified for the receipt of benefit in the third special period, he shall continue to be so disqualified until the expiration of five weeks from the date on which he began to be so disqualified, or the expiration of one week from the commencement of this Act, whichever first happens.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1922, and shall be construed as one with, and shall be included among the Acts which may be cited together as, the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1922. Short title and repeal.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on the twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

CHAPTER 31.

An Act to extend the powers of the Courts of the Universities of Scotland in the making of Ordinances for the superannuation and pensioning of Principals and Professors, and for the admission of Lecturers and Readers to the Senatus Academicus, and to provide for the admission of Lecturers and Readers to membership of the General Councils of those Universities.

[20th July 1922.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The powers conferred upon the University Courts of the Scottish Universities by section twenty-one of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (which confers power on these courts to make, alter, or revoke ordinances), shall include power, subject to the provisions of that section, to make and to alter or revoke such ordinances as they think fit— Extension of powers of University Courts to make ordinances. 52 & 53 Vict. c. 55.

(1) Ordaining that, notwithstanding the terms of any statute, charter, deed, or instrument and notwithstanding any custom, the tenure of office of any principal or professor shall be subject to limitations in respect of age prescribed by the ordinance : Provided that, in the case of any principalship or professorship the nomination or appointment whereto is reserved to or exercised by the Crown, the consent of His Majesty to any such limitation of the tenure thereof shall have been signified by the Secretary for Scotland : and provided also that no
