[Ch. iv.] Provisional Order (Marriages) [12 GEO. 5.]
Confirmation Act, 1922.

A.D. 1922.

S C H E D U L E.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Provisional Order (Marriages) Act 1905 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt :

And whereas certain marriages have been solemnized in the parish church of St. Matthew and the Chapel at Oxhey in the county of Hertford between the fifth day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen and the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and twenty without the due publication of banns or the production of a licence as required by the provisions of the Marriage Act 1823 :

And whereas it is expedient to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages so solemnized :

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Edward Shortt one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Provisional Order (Marriages) Act 1905 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

1. All marriages solemnized without due publication of banns or licence as required by the Marriage Act 1823 between the fifth day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen and the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and twenty in the parish church of St. Matthew and the Chapel at Oxhey in the county of Hertford shall be and shall be deemed to have been as valid as if banns of matrimony had been published or a licence had been obtained in accordance with the requirements of that Act.

2. The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of these marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.

Given under my hand this twenty-sixth day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.
