the said Congregational Union of Gloucestershire and Herefordshire (Incorporated) or other the union or association ceasing to be Trustees shall at the request and cost of the church convey or assign the hereditaments then vested in such union or association and affected by the trusts of this scheme to such persons or to such other incorporated union or association as the church may appoint. In the event of the appointment of individual Trustees the following provisions as to such appointment and as to the discharge and retirement of Trustees by way of variation of the statutory provisions shall take effect:—

A.D. 1921.

- (i) The number of Trustees shall be ten and that number shall as far as possible be kept up:
- (ii) No person shall be appointed a Trustee who is not a member of a Congregational church and any Trustee who ceases to be a member of such a church or who becomes bankrupt or remains out of the United Kingdom for more than 12 consecutive calendar months shall ipso facto cease to be a Trustee of the charity:
- (iii) A new Trustee may be appointed in the place of any Trustee who through death retirement or any other cause ceases to be a Trustee or who desires to be discharged from the trusts of the charity or who refuses or is unfit to act or is incapable of acting therein:
- (iv) The power of appointing new Trustees of the charity shall be vested in the church such power to be exercised by resolution of a special meeting of the church:
- (v) Any one of the Trustees may when there are more than five Trustees retire from the trusts of the charity on giving two calendar months' notice in writing of his intention so to do to the then minister or pastor and deacons or one of the deacons of the church (if there shall be such minister or pastor or deacons) and to each of the other Trustees for the time being and upon the termination of such two months the Trustee giving the notice shall cease to be a Trustee to all intents and purposes provided that any notice sent by post to the last known usual place of abode in England of any Trustee shall be sufficient notice to him hereunder.

15. All the trusts powers discretions and authorities hereby given to or vested in the Trustees shall be exerciseable by their committee or a majority of such committee or by a

A.D. 1921. majority of the Trustees in the event of there being individual Trustees as fully and effectually in all respects as the same might have been exercised by the Trustees. During such period as an incorporated union or association shall act as Trustees of the charity they shall be entitled to act according to their rules and byelaws from time to time in force provided that if there be any variance or inconsistency between the provisions of such rules and byelaws and the provisions of this scheme the provisions of this scheme shall prevail.

16. The following provisions shall apply to every special meeting of the church:—

- (a) The meeting shall be convened by the minister or pastor or deacons or committee for the time being of the church or by the authority of the Trustees or of one-fifth in number of the members of the church entitled to vote at such meeting by notice announcing the place day and hour of the meeting and the business or matter to be transacted or considered and such notices shall be given at each service held in the said buildings on the two Lord's Days immediately preceding such meeting:
- (b) The meeting shall be fixed for and held not earlier than the Tuesday next following the second of such two Lord's Days:
- (c) The only persons who shall be entitled to attend and vote at such meeting shall be those who whether male or female have attained the age of 21 years and have been members of the church during at least the six calendar months next preceding the meeting:
- (d) No votes shall be given by proxy but votes may be given by ballot or otherwise as the church may direct:
- (e) The term "a special resolution" in this scheme means a resolution passed at a special church meeting by a majority consisting of not less than two thirds of the persons present and voting on the question before the meeting and the same shall be binding upon all the members of the church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (f) Except where a special resolution is hereby expressly required a resolution passed at a special meeting by a simple majority of the persons voting on the question before the meeting shall be binding on all the members of the church whether present or not at such meeting:

Confirmation Act, 1921.

- (g) The proceedings and resolutions of the meeting shall be evidenced by a minute thereof under the hand of the chairman who shall have a casting vote and such minute shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution therein expressed to have been passed was passed at a meeting duly convened and held and by the requisite majority and it shall further be presumed that the person subscribing such minute as chairman was duly appointed to the office. A.D. 1921.

17. Except where it is hereby expressly provided that a special resolution of the church or a resolution of a special meeting thereof is requisite the affairs of the church and the provisions of this scheme may in all respects be managed and carried out under the direction of the members of the church at ordinary meetings of the church to which meetings the provisions of the last preceding clause hereof shall not apply but the same shall be held and regulated according to the ordinary practices and usages of Congregational churches which practices and usages shall also apply to special meetings of the church subject to the provisions of such last preceding clause hereof.

18. In the event of the removal of the church to another locality the powers hereby vested in the church in regard to the trust premises shall not thereby be suspended or in any manner impaired or affected.

19. The Charity Commissioners may from time to time in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction establish schemes for the alteration of any of the provisions of this scheme as if those provisions had been made by the founder in the case of a charity having a founder.

SCHEDULE.

1. The Divine Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments and their supreme authority as the rule of faith and practice.

2. The Unity of the Godhead and the essential Deity of the Father of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

3. The fall and depravity of man and the consequent absolute necessity of the grace and power of the Holy Spirit for his regeneration and sanctification.

4. The incarnation of the Son of God in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ His sacrificed death for the sins of mankind and the justification by faith of all who believe in Him.
